Apparently, this world's going to turn out as expected. For those people who expect that it won't turn out as expected, if it doesn't turn out as expected, it will have turned out as they expected. So you see, the world's going to turn out as expected.

-Eiichiro Oda, 2004

E

iichiro Oda began his manga career at the age of 17, when his one-shot cowboy manga Wanted! won second place in the coveted Tezuka manga awards. Oda went on to work as an assistant to some of the biggest manga artists in the industry, including Nobuhiro Watsuki, before winning the Hop Step Award for new artists. His pirate adventure One Piece, which debuted in Weekly Shonen Jump in 1997, quickly became one of the most popular manga in Japan.

LOVE SONG

お だ え い い ち ろ う

尾田栄一郎

EIICHIRO ODA

Monkey D. Luffy started out as just a kid with a dream—to become the greatest pirate in history! Stirred by the tales of pirate "Red-Haired" Shanks, Luffy vowed to become a pirate himself. That was before the enchanted Devil Fruit gave Luffy the power to stretch like rubber, at the cost of being unable to swim—a serious handicap for an aspiring sea dog. Undeterred, Luffy set out to sea and recruited some crewmates—master swordsman Zoro; treasure-hunting thief Nami; lying sharpshooter Usopp; the high-kicking chef Sanji; Chopper, the walkin' talkin' reindeer doctor; and the mysterious archaeologist Robin.

After charging into the Grand Line, Luffy and company arrive at an island that floats in the sky, Skypiea!! After exploring the area, they discover that the sacred ground of Upper Yard, the most contested part of Skypiea, was once part of Jaya Island in the Blue Sea below! Even more exciting, this lost land has a lost city of gold! Soon, however, the Straw Hats find themselves caught up in a "Survival Game" between the forces of Enel, the God with a God complex, and the Shandian guerrillas who seek to reclaim their home. Faced with the terror of Enel, the warriors fall one after another. In addition, Enel's true objective becomes clear. He seeks to erase all humans who live in the sky, to board the flying ark Maxim, and to set off for Fairy Vearth! To foil his plan, Luffy finally faces off against Enel. The fight seems to be in Luffy's favor as his rubber body makes him immune to Enel's lightning, but a golden ball is attached to his arm and he is pushed off the ark. With his natural enemy out of the picture, Enel finally enters the last stage of his "banquet."

A great golden bell sleeps in El Dorado. The feelings of the Great Warrior Kalgara and Noland the Liar, legendary friends from 400 years ago, are packed into the Great Bell. By ringing the bell, will it be possible to put an end to the fighting on Sky Island?! The battle of Luffy vs. Enel rushes to its final showdown!

GREAT

SURE LOOKS THAT

YEAH.

IT RANG.

COMRADES.

DISTANT MEMORIES WERE HARD

THE JOURNEY OF THE SLUMBERING FLOATING ISLAND WAS LONG...

ONCE, ITS PEOPLE...

...ENTRUSTED WORDS TO THE SOUND OF THAT BELL.

...TO CARRY THE SONG TO THE FARTHEST REACHES OF THE SEA.

THEY BELIEVED IN THE POWER OF THE BELL...

QUESTION CORNER

Q: What's up, Odacchi! ♡ Nice to meet you. By the way, right now I'm really mad! Hey! One Piece readers! You start S.B.S. on your own too much! Odacchi's the creator! Doesn't that mean anything to you people?! Whew! That felt great. ☆ And with that, "S.B.S. is starting!"

--Ayako

A: Oh, it's starting, is it?! Ooh, now you've done it! And here I thought we'd finally gotten the creator-run S.B.S. Back. Fine then! In the next volume, I'll line up first thing in the morning and start it. Take that!

Q: Hello, Oda Sensei! Why is it that the number of Gedatsu's hair-thingies changes depending on where he is? How many does he really have? Please answer in "Oda language."

--TAKE

Q: "Oda language," huh? I'm surprised you knew of that word! Here's the reason Gedatsu's number of hair-thingies changes: Botema-no-honussode-remokeyyobotema-too-hard-poposhi-bi-however-many-I-feel-like-because-that's-just-mahaha-nyu-nyo-nyon. That's how it is, folks.

A: About the "Kami" Enel. When I realized that you'd punned "Kami nari" (Japanese for "I am god") and "kaminari" (a way of saying "thunder"), I just knew I had to recommend you, Ei-chan, as a candidate for the next president of the OMGF (Old Man Gags Federation).

Q: That's incredibly unfair of you. I'm still a lively, exuberant twenty-something. Stop it.

QUESTION CORNER

Q: Odatsu! If you let your eyes roll back in your head, you can't draw your pages!

--DoraPiece

A: Oops! You're right! I Blew it!

(A Luffy I drew with → my eyes rolled back)

Q: Dear Eiichiro Oda, how are you? I would like to ask a question if I may. In volume 23, during the bath scene, the men all went to peep at Nami and Vivi. I understand why Sanji, King Cobra and Igaram did it, but why did the rest (Usopp, Luffy and Chopper) go peep? Please answer me! Seriously! If you don't give me a serious answer, I I...I'll sue!

--by Pinoko Shikobaya, President of the Federation for Preventing Guys from Peeping

A: They all went to peep because they're all healthy and male. I don't think there needs to be another reason. But Chopper probably only went because everybody else was going. Anyway, if a cute girl is showing some skin, I think it's pretty rude to the girl not to even consider going to peep. Yeah, Sanji says it's way rude.

Q: Oh, Enel, Enel, wherefore art thou Enel?

--by Hina

A: ...Yes. Thank you for your letter.

YOU DON'T MIND? I'M SURE THEY'LL BE THRILLED!

HIS NAME IS MONKEY D. LUFFY.

I'M QUITE INTERESTED IN HIM MYSELF.

TO ME, HE HAD THE SAME FEEL ABOUT HIM AS ROGER ONCE DID.

WAS IT ONLY MY IMAGINATION?

IN ANY CASE, I'M SURE LUFFY IS DESTINED TO MAKE HIS MARK ON HISTORY.

PERHAPS NOT.

I SEE. ONE LETTER OF HIS NAME...

YEAH!
YOU TELL 'EM,

QUESTION CORNER

Q: To Oda Sensei. Before, in volume 27, you talked about "Sokotsuya." Is Su the cloud fox's voice actor "Sokotsuya"? Who in the world voices her? Please answer properly.

A: Nami's voice actress, Akemi Okamura, actually. Pretty hard, isn't it? To those of you who watch the anime, listen reeaaaaally closely to the animals' voices. "Sokotsuya" is actually one of the regular cast members.

Q: In the fifth panel of page 153 of volume 30, Sanji and Usopp are climbing up the ship, remember? When they're doing that, what is that thing that Usopp's wearing? What is "splat," huh? What?

--by One Piece Fan Club Member No. 009

A: They're Octoshoes. Octoshoes. Octoshoes, a new weapon developed at the Usopp workshop! They've got suction cups on the soles. Usopp says if you put on four of 'em (one for each hand and foot), you can climb any wall, but I don't know if they're really that powerful or not. In any case, try saying "Octoshoes" fast ten times!

Q: Hello, Oda Sensei. It's abrupt, but I challenge you! "Rock, paper, scissors...Rock!" And here's my question. Are Skypiea people born with heads like this? →

The supports(?) are thin, and I'm surprised they hold up so well. Please answer good and properly.

(↑Giving an order.) --by AppleRapple

A: ...I lost. I called "scissors." ...Um. That's, um. Yes, that's like a natural hair perm. Natura-perm. They call it a Natura-Ad (Natural Ad Balloon Hair). And the supports are fine, even though they're thin, because they do their very best.

Reader: The “Conine” medicine that Mont Blanc Noland made really exists, doesn’t it? I pulled out my dictionary a little bit ago, and what do you know, it said that there was a medicine called quinine made from cinchona trees. Is that what you based it on? “Quinine: An alkaloid made from the bark of the cinchona tree. It’s a fever reducer and stomachic medicine. Especially effective against malaria.”
--One Piece Secret Information Investigative Headquarters Chief

Oda: Yes. There is a medicine like that. There isn’t actually a terrible disease called tree fever, so don’t worry about catching it. It’s always difficult telling stories that deal with diseases and things like this. Made-up diseases that are too scary can worry folks needlessly, whereas using real diseases can hit a little too close to home for some readers. That’s why I ended up taking elements of real world curable diseases and mixed them up a bit.

Reader: Oda Sensei, heso! I am an eight-year-old girl who loves animals and One Piece. I found a bird called an aisa in an illustrated guide. Is the Shandian girl Aisa’s name taken from the bird’s name?
--Nacchan

Oda: You’re right! It’s a bird. When I’m not sure what to name things, I tend to pull out a Bird Field Guide. It’s a good name for a girl, isn’t it?

Reader: Hello, Odacchi Sensei! There’s something I’ve wanted to ask you for a long time. It’s about the voice actors in the anime! I think if we could see profiles of the actors who breathe life into Luffy and his crew for us in the anime, and read messages from them, it would make all of us feel closer to them. By the way, I’m a big fan of Kazuya Nakai, who voices Zoro.

Oda: I’m hearing this from lots of people. I’ll try to brainstorm something.

© Okay. I've made a new version of the "Time Table" I promised you guys. (Page 209).

Thanks to everybody who sent me time tables from their own schools. Here are the items I've checked off:

- Some schools have class on Saturdays too.
- Some schools have eight periods.
- You wanted a column where you could write in starting and ending times.

© For those with no school on Saturdays:

Use the Saturday (SAT) column on the far right as a column for writing in times (8:50-7:35, etc.).

© For those who don't need the rows for 7th and 8th period: It's now set up so that you can cut off the bottom two rows or black them out without messing up the chart, so do whatever you like with them.

© Size:

Use a copier and enlarge or shrink it however you want! (Obviously)

© Tea:

Oh no, please don't trouble yourselves.

For the next four pages, starting on the next page, we have "Straw Hat Theater." Hmm, I wish I could've shown it to you in color. After that, we return to our regular story for chapters 304, "Long Island Adventure," and 305, "Foxy the Silver Fox." Hope you enjoy them!
